

PHRASAL VERBS WITH 'GET'

1. Get Away: To escape or take a break from a routine.

- Let's plan a vacation to get away from the stress of work.
- Sometimes, a short walk helps me get away from daily life's worries.

2. Get In: To enter or bring something inside.

- Can you please help me get the shopping in?
- We should hurry to get in before the concert starts.

3. Get Off: To leave or exit.

- Let's get off the bus at the next stop.
- If we can get off by seven o'clock, the roads will be clearer.

4. Get Along: To have a harmonious relationship or be on good terms with someone.

- Despite their differences, they manage to get along well.
- She gets along well with her colleagues.

5. Get by: To manage or survive with the available resources.

- She's determined to get by on her own without relying on others.
- He's been able to get by with his part-time job and freelance work.

Quick Smart English

6. Get over: To recover from an illness or overcome a difficulty.

- It took her a while to get over the flu.
- She never completely got over the loss of her first child.

7. Get across: To communicate or convey a message successfully.

- The campaign had clearly failed to get its message across to the public.
- Let's use visuals to help get the message across more effectively.

8. Get on: To enter a vehicle or mode of transportation.

- We need to get on the train before it departs.
- I think we got on the wrong bus.

9. Get out: To exit or leave a place.

- We should get out of the house and enjoy the sunshine.
- I banged my head as I was getting out of the car.

10. Get into: To become interested in an activity or subject.

- She's been getting into yoga recently.
- I'm really getting into jazz these days.

11. Get around to: To finally find time or motivation to do something.

- Did you get around to doing the shopping?
- I still haven't got around to fixing that tap.

Quick Smart English

12. Get back at: To revenge on somebody.

- I think he's trying to get back at her for what she said in the meeting.
- Jenny decided to get back at her brother for borrowing her headphones without asking.

13. Get ahead: To progress or become successful in one's career or life.

- She wants to get ahead in her career.
- You've got to take risks if you want to get ahead.

14. Get behind: To fail to do as much work or pay as much money as you should by a particular time.

- She got behind with her mortgage.
- The company had gotten behind with its work and needed outside help.

15. Get down to: To focus on or start working on a task seriously.

- I've got a lot of work to do, but I can't seem to get down to it.
- It's time to get down to studying for the upcoming exams.

16. Get to: To begin to do or be.

- You're getting to be just like your mother.
- I didn't like him at the very beginning. But once I got to know him, I got to like her.

Quick Smart English

17. Get back: To return to a place after you have been somewhere else.

- If you could get back in time, what changes would you make?
- Give me a call when you get back.

18. Get through: To succeed in talking to someone on the phone.

- I tried to call her but couldn't get through.
- Finally, I managed to get through to the customer service.

19. Get around: To move from place to place.

- You need a car to get around town.
- It didn't take long for that rumour to get around the office.

20. Get up: To rise or stand from a sitting or lying position.

- It's hard to get up early in the morning, but it's necessary.
- After a short nap, he decided to get up and continue working.

